About Annamacharya:

Sri Tallapaka Annamacharya (1408-1503), the mystic saint composer of the 15th century is the earliest known musician to compose songs called "samkirtanas" in praise of Lord Venkateswara. An ardent devotee of Lord Venkateswara, Annamacharya(also known as Annamayya) successfully composed more than 32,000 Samkirtanas(a Carnatic composition) in the carnatic music tradition, a feat which is near impossible to replicate. Annamacharya considered his compositions as floral offerings to God.
